

MessageSolution Cancels its Exhibition and Participation in 2020 RSA Conference due to Continued Concern of Novel Coronavirus

MessageSolution, a global technology leader in Data Governance, enterprise archiving, eDiscovery and Content Security, launches its new framework of MessageSolution Compliance Center for compliant policy setting of Personally Identifiable information (PII) and advanced protection from phishing in Office 365 and malware threats at 2020 RSA Conference

San Francisco February 20, 2020 MessageSolution announces the cancellation of the annual exhibition and panel participation at RSA 2020 due to the global outbreak of the Novel Coronavirus COVID-19. The company is taking preliminary precautions to withdraw exhibition and participation in this year's RSA conference which will take place from February 23 to 28, 2020.

"It is a difficult decision to cancel our exhibiting and participating activities in RSA this year but our global customers, partners and employees are our top priority," stated Kevin McInerny, MessageSolution spoke person for this event. "We have to take the preliminary precautions to withdraw all activities at RSA for the safety of our customers, partners, and our employees."

MessageSolution planned to launch its new framework of its content security and compliance solutions for California Consumer Protection Act (CCPA) and General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). MessageSolution's award winning unified email, file and SharePoint archiving eDiscovery system and services are implemented for global enterprise customers over 50 countries in cloud and on premise.

MessageSolution offers a two-fold content security solution for securing Office 365 connections with ATP based on post-delivery threat section providing security awareness and alerting email users of suspicious content. MessageSolution cuts the cost of malware related downtime by 50% and reduces threat detection and kill time by 25%.

With recent compliance regulations such as GDPR and CCPA, MessageSolution Compliance Center enable organizations to classify, profile, and find sensitive data including credit card number, social security number, home address, etc data subject access requests (DSAR). MessageSolution implemented machine learning and natural language processing techniques to train the system to search and tag emails and documents that contain PII to map similar documents for fast compliance and eDiscovery.

With flexible options, MessageSolution Cloud Online Services help organizations to realize 50% of savings on annual Office 365 plan renewals to switch out of oversubscribed plans. Enterprise customers in Office 365 benefit from MessageSolution Intelligent Data Classification to identify the users' application workloads for annual plan renewals.

"For customers and partners' business meetings and product demos scheduled at MessageSolution Booth#4125 in RSA Conference this year, our channel managers will contact you to reschedule the meetings on customer site or online instead", McInerny says. "We're currently monitoring the development of the Coronavirus outbreak for the upcoming events and appreciate our customers and partners' understanding of this cancellation."
